

I am a Morse operator and this proposal is naturally attractive to be. However, it runs counter to all trends that can be observed in other jurisdictions as well as general attitudes. I thus consider that the proposal is not particularly helpful in the context of other pending proposals.